The Senior Blotter

OF

1921

TO MISS CORDELIA SMITH

When school-years have forever flown
Into the past,
And we, Class '21, have grown
Quite old, at last;
When Time has dulled the laughs and pains
Of these bright years,
And blotted from our misty brains
Our hopes, our fears;
Yet e'en forever will there dwell
With us the thought
Of her, who taught us all so well,
Yet more than taught:

For happy smiles and words of cheer,
That warmed one through,
We dedicate, on leaving here,
This book, to you.

Vol. XIII, No. 1 | C. ALLEN KNIGHT, Editor | June 3, 1941

GREAT HONOR PAID CITY.

Verne Scott, President of the American Steel Corporation, paid New Albany a great honor last week when he came to speak on "Building Bridges."

A delegation of prominent citizens composed of Mayoress Grace Standeford, Scott Pickens, President of the Chamber of Commerce, and Prof. Stewart Green, Supt. of Schools, met him at the station. They were accompanied by Jess Grosheider's Brass Band.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Floyd County Teachers' Institute met last week at the High School. From the moment the convention was called to order by President Lloyd until it ended, it proved most interesting and entertaining. Thelma Huntsinger gave a series of lectures on "Commercial Courses," Frances Michel, upon "Instilling Geometry in the Minds of H. S. Students," and Wilma Duffy upon "Making Most of One's Time."

The Institute arranged to have Earline Lamppin, the famous children's story-teller, come to New Albany soon.

FIRE ! ! !

Fire destroyed a large part of the business section of the city Friday, when the K. H. Wells Ten Cent Store burned down. The new goods, ordered by Miss M. J. Sweeny, head buyer for the store, had just arrived, so the disaster came at a most unfortunate time.

Had it not been for the efficient work of Fire Chief Herbert Daily, the fire would have spread all over the city.

The loss, as estimated by Herbert Miller, President of the Riskall Insurance Co., was $50,000,000.

NOTED SOPRANO COMING.

Mlle. Frieda Newhouse, the noted soprano, is booked by the Farnsley Amusement Company to appear here next month. All advance notices predict this as the most successful season of her career. The other members of the company are Robt. Thompson, violinist; Virginia Huckeby, reader; Alice Marquis, accompanist.

One of the outstanding features of Mlle. Newhouse's entertainment is the elaborate wardrobe designed for her by the famous modiste M. K. Mathes.

For further inquiries see John Hagel, P. A.

NEW Y. M. C. A. DEDICATED.

The beautiful new Y. M. C. A. donated to his "home-town" by Jonathan Borgerding, the oil magnate, is now ready for use. Harry Hittner, the architect, has done remarkable work upon the edifice. The reception rooms are especially attractive as the Misses Hammond and Huckelberry, proprietors of the Exclusive Drapery Shoppe, did all the decorating.

Jacob Schmidt is returning from the East to be physical director.

The dedication will take place next Sunday, with the Rev. Harold Wood in charge. Miss Hilda Voyles, the returned missionary from China will also speak.

The Informer has been very fortunate to obtain the services of R. B. Phillips, the noted cartoonist. Mr. Phillips will occupy the beautiful residence of Paul Short, the humorist, who leaves shortly for a Chautauqua engagement.

SOCIETY NOTES.

One of the most brilliant society events of the season took place when Misses Dorothy Callahan and Georgia Briscoe gave a ball for Admiral Thos. Gebhart, U. S. Navy and Mrs. Gebhart. Miss Helen Bettman, the popular florist, had decorated the Blue Room of Barger's Hotel very effectively for the occasion. Those who assisted in the receiving line were: Misses Helen McDonald, Lillian Shacklett, Lillian Colby and Messrs. Lyndon Everbach, James Mathews, Robert Clipp, and John Colby, all prominent in New Albany society.

Mr. James McCulloch, the popular confectioner had prepared the most delicious of refreshments.

According to Miss Helen Blaker, Mrs. Gebhart's Social Secretary, this was the most charming entertainment ever given for the Admiral.

AVIATOR HURT.

Excitement was tense yesterday when W. Russell Beeler, the famous aviator, fell 2,000 feet in his plane. He was making his tenth transcontinental trip.

Although Mr. Beeler was seriously injured, yet, under the care of Surgeon Pennington, Dr. M. Erni, and the capable nurse, Miss Rose Deuser, his friends have all hopes for his recovery.

FAMOUS MODELS TO APPEAR.

Everyone is invited to come to the Fashion Show next week at the "Parisienne." The models, Hilda Knoob and Genevieve Walts will be there with the latest French styles.

Nellie Short, Marie Voyles, proprietors.

DID YOU KNOW

That you could get "Hollman Sisters Nut Butter" at Chas. Wright's Cash Grocery?

Drop in and the special demonstrators G. Fink and C. Grimes will give you a sample.

The long-looked for book, "How to Giggle and Get By," under the joint authorship of Misses Clapp, Hook and Flickner, is now on the market. One of the features of the book is the amusing cartoons by Julia Hunt.

The printers, Gehlbach and Shacklett, predict it to be the season's best seller.

Miss Elsie Mitchell and Anastacia McConnell left today to try their luck as Scientific Farmerettes upon the large farm of W. Adolph.

Chas. Bates wishes to thank all his friends who so kindly helped elect him Prosecuting Attorney in the recent election.

NOTES OF CURRENT INTEREST.

The Misses Goodbub have announced the opening of their "Charm School" for young ladies. Parents are assured of the most careful attention given their children. The Faculty includes such notables as Miss Meyer, violin and piano; Misses Logue and Lewis, domestic science; Miss Kahl, art, and Miss Coleman, physical training.

ORGANIZATIONS

SPEAKERS

This year has been one of the busiest and most interesting the Speakers have ever spent. They devoted most of their energy to charity but still found time for some delightful social affairs.

They have played the part of "big sisters" to the Orphans' Home children, taking them goodies every two weeks and giving a party for them this spring. They made the annual Thanksgiving dinner a great success, and gladdened the hearts of still more poor children when they distributed Christmas stockings.

By the sale of the famous "Pauline Bars," they raised the money to care for their French War Orphan, Jean Roignot, and made a contribution of $25.00 to the Scholarship Fund.

The Rose Dinner Party was such an enjoyable one that the Club decided to make it an annual affair.

The officers for the year were:

The Althean Club has given three assembly programs this year. "The Prince of Arcadia," a farce; on Valentine Day the Club gave an assembly program consisting of old love songs sung by the Club members in organdy dresses, trimmed with red hearts. "My Aunt From California," a comedy, was their last program.

The Altheans organized in their Freshman year, and as they are all Seniors this is their last year.

ESOTERIC

ESOTERIC CLUB

The many fine things accomplished by student co-operation and true club spirit of the preceding years being hard to surpass, the Esoteric Club has just ended the most successful year since its organization. The activities of the year began with an outing for the children of the New Albany Orphans' Home, which was followed by an Easter party on the High School lawn for the poor children of the city. The Club gave ten dollars to the Relief Fund for the suffering and starving Armenians, and also twenty-five dollars to the Indiana University Alumnae Scholarship Fund.

Early in the year the Esoterics established a candy stand in the lower hall, part of the profits of which was used to maintain a poor tubercular woman and her three children for several months, until the county could care for them. The remainder of the profits, which amount to about one hundred and fifty dollars, is to be used next year by the club for school interests.

One of the chief aims this year was to maintain good scholarship and co-operation in the school. In this interest the club was fortunate in securing Dr. Austin R. Middleton, of the University of Louisville, to lecture to the whole school. The weekly programs which were composed of reading, music and discussions were also characterized by this spirit.

A cordial reception in the form of a lively party was given at the beginning of the second semester to the entering Freshman Class. Besides this the Club members were hostesses to two other parties, one a typical Halloween party and the other a very formal affair. The Esoterics also hiked to a number of interesting places around the city.

True to the Esoterics Motto, "To be rather than to seem," has the club worked throughout the entire year so that each member may be proud to wear the tiny gold "E" pin. Long live the Esoterics! May the coming year be even more successful.

DRAMA CLUB

When school opened last fall, a drama class was formed. Thirty students, whose grades in English were good and who gave promise of dramatic ability, were chosen to make up the class.

The students of the drama class have given five public performances this year: "Rose of the Wind," "The Far Away Princess," "The Importance of Being Earnest," "The Teeth of a Gift Horse," and "The Cricket on the Hearth." The class also presented "The Lost Silk Hat" and "Op O' Me Thumb" as assembly programs. Several of the Seniors in the class took part in the Class Play, "What Happened to Jones."

This spring, the class organized as the Drama Club, with the following officers: President, Walter Siltz; Vice President, William Pennington; Secretary, Earline Lamppin; Treasurer, Maurice Kahl.

With the proceeds from its performances, the class furnished the stage with four large screens, bought a $125 victrola and a number of good records, entertained at a reception, and donated $110 to the Scholarship Fund.

Following are the names of the members of the class and the characters they have impersonated:

1. Russell Beeler: the policeman in "The Lost Silk Hat," Mr. Dot, Henry Fuller.
2. Elizabeth Beers: the Princess von Geldern.
3. Helen Bettman: Dot Perrybingle.
4. Mary Birney: Lady Brachnell.
5. Georgia Briscoe: Liddy in "The Far Away Princess."

DRAMA CLUB—Continued

6. Leland Brock: Fritz Strubel, the caller in "The Lost Silk Hat," and Tackleton.
7. Margaret Bulleit: Bertha Plummer.
8. Dorothy Callahan: Milly in "The Far Away Princess."
9. Emma Clapp: Madame Didier.
10. Iris Cook: Mrs. Fielding.
11. Wilma Duffy: May Fielding, Mrs. Clem Galloway.
12. Adelaide Emery: Nora.
13. Martha Erni: Anne Fischer; Minerva.
14. Bessie Goodbub: Celeste, Mrs. Dot.
15. John Hagel: John Worthing, Antony Goodly, the porter in "Cricket on the Hearth," the clerk in "The Lost Silk Hat."
16. Mary Hollmann: Frau Lindemann, Katie in "The Teeth of a Gift Horse," Helma.
17. Anna May Hook: Rosa in "The Far Away Princess," Rose Jordan.
18. Virginia Huckeby: Cecily Cardew, Cissy.

Two boys not in the Drama Class were in the Class Play. Scott Pickens took the part of Thomas Holder, and Paul Cullen the part of William Bigbee.

Carson Bard, who was a member of the class the first term, and Maurice Kahl, deserve much credit for their work as electricians.

The students of the drama class who took part in "The Private Secretary," a play given by the Athletic Boosters' Club, were:

Walter Siltz	Edith Marseland
Russell Beeler	Miss Ashford
Carson Bard	Rev. Robert Spalding
Leland Brock	Douglas Cattermole
Paul Short	Mrs. Stead
Tom Gebhart	Sidney Gibson

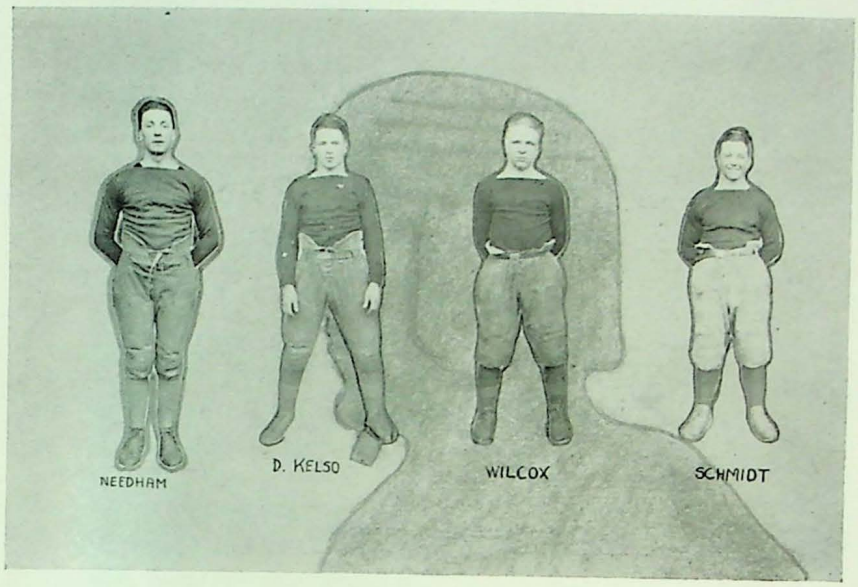
ATHLETICS

FOOT BALL TEAM 1920

The Senior Blotter

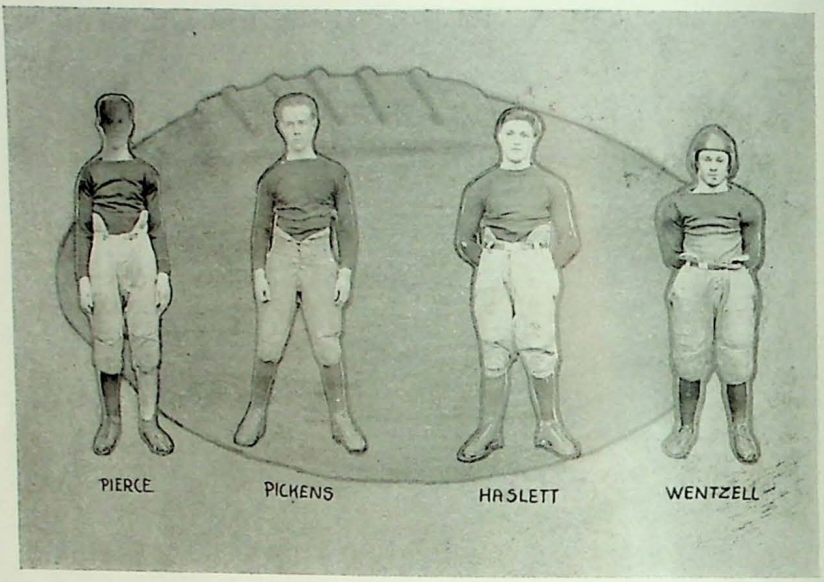


NEEDHAM, FAYE.—Captain. His serious manner and ever encouraging voice pushed his men to many a victory. His steady gaining as well as his defensive work was one of the main features of the Princeton and proved him to be our best half-back. He has one more year.

KELSO, RICHARD.—Half-back. Dick played his second year on the varsity. His pluck and fighting spirit would be an asset to any team. His best game was the Hanover game where he recovered a fumble and ran sixty yards for a touchdown. He has one more year.

WILCOX. CHESTER.—Full-back. Cotton is the only Freshman to ever make the varsity team. He was a hard tackler and our strongest man on the offense. Great things are expected of this husky Freshman in years to come.

SCHMIDT, JACOB—Quarter-back. "Jake's" work at quarter was one of the features of the season. Jake fought right ahead always encouraging and smiling. His best games were Princeton and Hanover. He is lost by graduation.

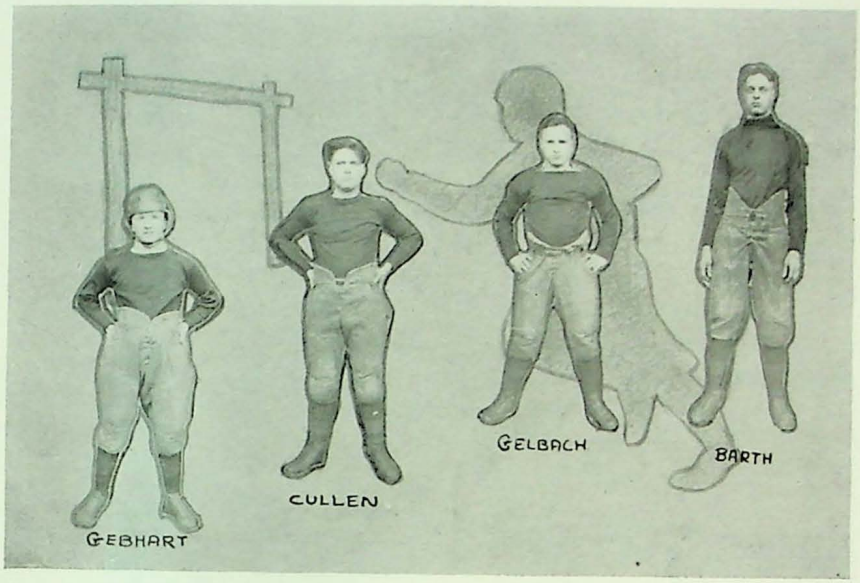


PIERCE, EDWIN.—Right End. "Bud" the galloper. He was one of the best ends ever turned out by N. A. H. S. His unusual ability to catch forward passes would make him an asset to any team. His best games were K. M. I. and Princeton. 'Bud" has one more year.

PICKENS, H. S.—Left End. "Play Jockey" came back to us after a year's absence and he came strong. Scott played end with the spirit of do or die breaking up many end runs and passes of opposing teams. His best games were Princeton and Manual. "Pick" will be lost by graduation.

HEAZLETT, GEORGE.—Center. "Zeak" was a fellow who was in every play. He did the kicking for our team. Whenever "Zeak" was called back to carry the ball we were always sure of a gain. We are sorry to lose him this year. His best game was K. M. I.

WENZELL, MILTON.—Tackle. "Mud" was a good man on offense and a hard tackler. He had a way of breaking through that could not be duplicated nor explained. He is a born foot-ball man and knows the game. "Mud's" best game was Princeton, he has one more year.

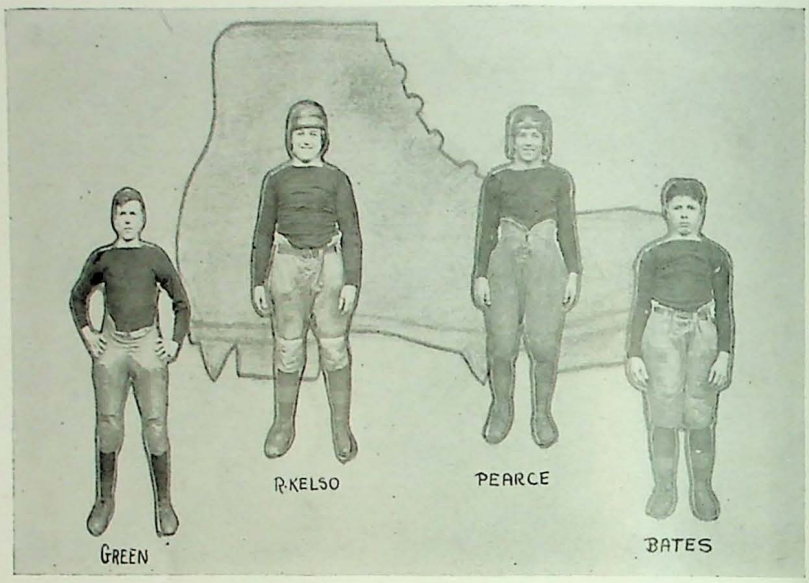


GEBHART, TOM.—Tom played half-back and full-back. He was a consistent gainer because he took advantage of the holes. On defence he always made more tackles than any other man and when Gebhart hit something gave way. His best games were Hanover and Manual. He is lost by graduation.

CULLEN, PAUL.—Left guard. Cullen was big and strong so the average man tried in vain to break through his guard. It was not unusual to see him dive over a line to break up a play before it was formed. His best games were Princeton and Manual. Cullen is lost by graduation.

GEHLBACH, ALBERT.—Guard. "Mutt" is small but in his small body is the ability of the strongest men. "Mutt" is a fierce tackler and is always there to get his man so very few plays went through his guard. His best game was Hanover. We are sorry to lose him by graduation.

BARTH, ERNEST.—Tackle. "Bussie" played his second year on the varsity as tackle and it is a known fact that his presence is a credit to any team. His best game was Hanover. Barth has one more year with the old squad.



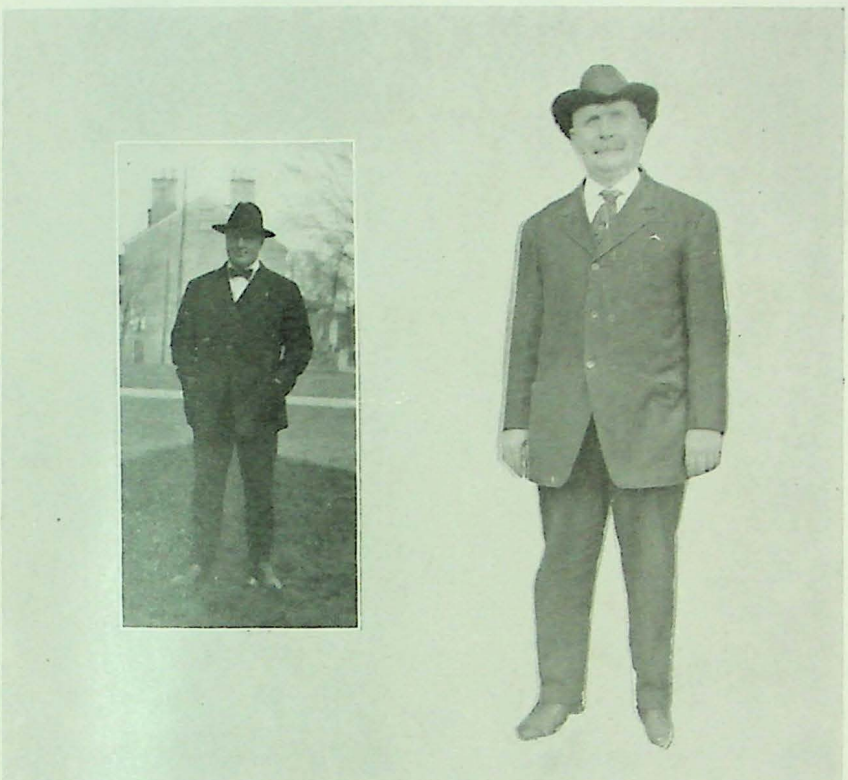
GREEN, STEWART.—A strong utility man and the best open field runner of the squad. "Stew" played his first game with us and we are sorry to lose him by graduation.

KELSO, RUSSELL "Fats".—Guard and substitute center. "Fats" was "mean" and strong and it was against his rules to let his man play a whole game without getting "blood." He has two more years.

PEARCE, RUSSELL.—"Nig" Pearce is a great utility man. Always ready to go in and encourage the men on and on. He never failed to jump in on a new position as if he knew it well. His best games were Hanover and Manual.

BATES, RALPH.—Bates is both young and small but living up to the old Bates foot-ball records. His presence in the next two years will be a great help to the N. A. H. S. foot-ball team.

ROGER PHILLIPS.—Center. "Bean" came here a stranger from Pekin and made "sub" on the squad. He earned his letter by his clean playing and love of the game. His picture failed to get in because of a delay.



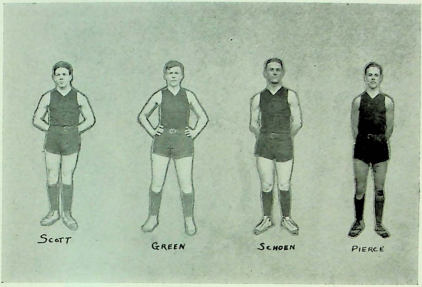
CHAS. R. TURNER, COACH.

Under the leadership of Mr. Turner, with all the hard work and training he gave them, the team grew to be a winning team.

PROF. H. A. BUERK.

Ever encouraging and helping the players on; making a success of every season; Athletics in N. A. H. S. owe him much.

BASKET BALL TEAM

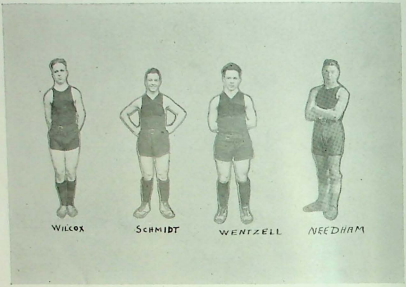


VERNE SCOTT.—Forward and Captain. "Scottie" was this year's leader and made an ideal captain. When things were going worst, it was "Scottie" who cheered up the rest and kept up the morale. His ability was known to all because of his speed and basket shooting. He led the squad in points scored with 189.

STEWART GREEN.—Guard. A better guard never wore a High School basket ball uniform than "Stew." His work on the team this year was of paramount quality. Although Stewart graduates this year, his basket ball prowess will never be forgotten.

ORLAND SCHOEN.—Forward. This was "Doc's" first year as a regular and he played his position like a veteran. "Doc" has a keen eye for the basket and has broken up many games by his long shots. Orland will be back on the job next year if nothing happens.

EDWIN PIERCE.—Guard. "Bud" was another new member of the team but he surprised everyone this year as a guard and running mate to Green. "Bud" was known by the way he handled himself on the floor and also by his clean playing. Edwin will be back next year.

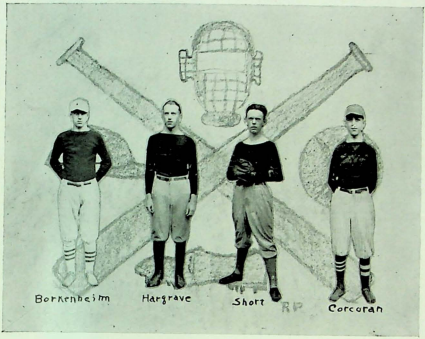


CHESTER WILCOX.—Guard. "Cotton" did not receive a letter this year but is sure of a regular positon in 1922. He is a strong guard and should fill the bill in great style.

JACOB SCHMIDT.—Guard. Jake is a guard of many years of experience and is a hard man to get through. Many a forward has wished that there "was no such animal" when they played against him.

MILTON WENTZELL.—Guard. "Mud" is another guard of marked ability. He played the game for all it was worth and was ready to go in and fight every time he was called upon. "Mud" will also be with us next year.

FAYE NEEDHAM.—Center. Faye had a hard time getting started this year owing to an injury but when he recovered, he showed everyone that he was a man hard to do without. He played a great game at center this year, there being very few centers who could outjump or outplay him.



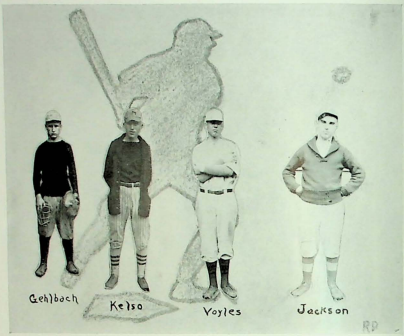
BASEBALL

CAPTAIN BORKENHEIM.—Center Field. Captain of the 1921 team. He was a flawless outfielder, never muffing a ball the entire season. A good hitter and fast on the bases; he was always in the game, never relaxing until the last out was made.

JAMES HARGRAVE.—Pitcher. "Big Jim," as he was called, was a tower of strength in the box. Possessing remarkable curves and great steam. His best game was against the N. A. B. C. team, allowing them three hits and fanning twelve.

PAUL SHORT.—First Base. "Flop" did not know he could play first base until this year, and now he is a first baseman of the first order. "Flop" was one of the best hitters on the team, never failing in a pinch.

PAUL CORCORAN.—Left Field. Paul is without a doubt a good outfielder and combined with his ability, and adeptness at hitting in the pinches.

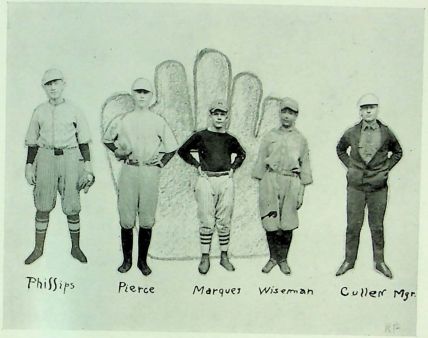


ALBERT GEHLBACH.—Catcher. Although small in size "Mutt" was a hard worker behind the bat. Always full of pep. A steady hitter and a valuable asset to the team.

RICHARD KELSO.—Short Stop. "Dick," a steady fielder who earned a reputation as a batter with his long drives. Great things are expected of "Dick" next season.

JOSEPH VOYLES.—Catcher. Joe was a good allround player, being especially brilliant behind the bat. He caught his best game against Male H. S. "Joe" was also a hard hitter in the pinches.

LOUIS JACKSON.—Third Base. Louis played his first year on the team holding down the "hot corner" in fine style. Louis was always full of "pep" and could be relied on to do his best.



ROGER PHILLIPS.—Pitcher. "Beaner" was a steady hurler, having a fine assortment of curves. He pitched a remarkable game against St. Xavier, allowing the green and gold boys five safeties, but losing out in the tenth inning when the infield "blew up."

EDWIN PIERCE—Right Fielder. "Bud" filled the right field position in fine style. His fast fielding, hard hitting, earned him a reputation that will not be forgotten.

JEAN MARGUET.—Pitcher. To watch him pitch one would wonder where all the steam came from as he was one of the smallest men on the team. His best game was against K. M. I., allowing them five hits and fanning nine.

HAROLD WISEMAN.—Second Base. Although this was his first year on the team he proved to be the very man for second base. Great things are expected of him in the future.

The business end of the base-ball season was handled very efficiently by Paul Cullen. He arranged a full schedule with the best teams around New Albany and handled the financial end so well that the season closed without debt.

THE first annual or year book published in New Albany High School was called the Vista, appearing in 1904. In 1910 the name changed to the Senior Blotter. At first it was a small pamphlet, but as time went on it grew until it is this book. In every issue the name

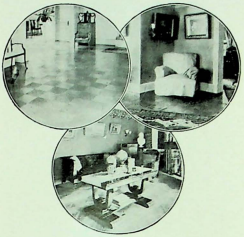
PARQUETRY FLOORS



In proportion to cost there is nothing that adds as much to sale or rental of a house as a fine hardwood floor.

It is clean, cool, beautiful and sanitary. Housekeeping is made much easier as there are no heavy carpets to sweep. Housekeeping is robbed of its horrors as carpet beating is abolished.

They can be laid over old floors in an old residence or a new one.
